MEDICINAL.

MADE LIFE A BURDEN.

trom it and the some treatment recommend-ed in his Treatise on Diseases of Women, that I wish every woman throughout our land, suffering in the same way, may be induced to edge your medicines and give your medicines and treatment a fair trial."

Miss Crawford. "Favorite Prescription" is a powerful, invigorating tonic and a soothing and strengthening nervine, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, improves direction, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and vigor. For every "female complaint," it is the only remedy so sure that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't cure, you have your money back. MEETINGS.

"The annual meetings shall be held in the city of Alexandria, State of Virginia, on the third (3rd) Monday in October of each and every year, the first of said annual meetings to be held on the third (3rd) Monday of October, 1804; and at the annual meetings in cluding first said annual meetings, the officers.

Tather O'Hara, her pastor, who had been dead some years, appeared at her bedside, and laying his hands upon her eyes, bade her look and she would see as distinctly as when she was a girl.

She was deeply impressed by the ber, 1804; and at the annual meeting, the officers and directors mentioned in section one (1) of article six (6 of this Constitution shall be elected; and to constitution shall be elected; and to constitution shall be quire, and he shall not be eligible as any offi-cer mentioned in section one (1) of article six (6) of this constitution."

We also give notice that at said general meeting herein before called we intend offer-ing a resolution removing the then five di-rectors, members of the board of directors of said company, and to proceed forthwith to fill and company, and to proceed formwith to his he vacaneles caused by such removal.

MESTINGS.

MRS. McCue's Miracle.—Mrs. Anna McCue, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., 58 years old, has for several years been totally blind, and several physicians pronounced the case hopeless, yet to-day she can see as well as the average woman of her age.

Her remarkable cure, she says, was brought at 11 o'clock a, m, for the purposes following, to-wit:

First. To amend section one (1) of article five (5) of the Constitution of said company.

First, To amend section one (1) of article had a peculiar dream. In it Rev. five (5) of the Constitution of said company, so as to make said section one (1) read as Father O'Hara, her pastor, who had cleated; and to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, there must be present those who can give a majority of all the votes which could be given by all the votes which we will be given by all the votes wh it that she went down to Hanever cemudly, to amend section three (3) of ar etery, to the grave of the priest, and ticle nine (9) of the constitution of said company, so as to make said section three (3) prayed. Returning home again, she told her children she knew that if she merited the blessing her eyesight would read as follows:

'The attorney shall be a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and shall reside in Washington D. C. He shall perform such duties as the board of directors may from time to time require, and he shall not be eligible as any officially activated is section as all of article six gather several handfuls of soil from the merited the blessing her eyesight would gather several handfuls of soil from the top. This she carried home, and she bound some of it over her eyes with a handkerchief, and again fervently praying that her eyesight might be restored, went to bed.

When she unbound the cloth in the morning she was able to lift her eyelids, something she had not been able to o for years. Overjoyed at this she passed the day in prayer, and that night again bound some of the earth over her eyes. In the morning she was able to see as well as before her eyes were affected.

BOULANGER'S PLOT AGAINST CAR-NOT .- Paris has gone back to the days of Boulanger for its sensation this week. Politicians have been hotly discussing the revelations made by Paul De Cassagnae of plots made between the Right as represented by "the committee of six," and Boulanger, The latter, when turned out of the Ministry of War as radical, had received a promise that he should be reinstated when Floquet became President of the
